Deposits & Cancellations

All bookings require full payment to secure your booking. Deposits per person will be forfeited should you decide to cancel your booking or party members fail to attend. Should a customer choose either to cancel in advance or not attend, regardless of the reason, it is the Royal Hotel's policy that the deposit or full payment is not refunded. Also, a customer deposit cannot be transferred to offset part of another customer's bill.

However, completely at management's discretion, deposits on tables for meals may be transferred to reserve a similar booking at a later date if cancelled with 30 days or more notice.
